.....RESPONDENTS

ORDER:

Seeking a Mandamus, declaring the proceedings of the 1st respondent in Roc.CS-1/25/Revision/2005, dated 14.10.2005, as illegal and arbitrary, the present writ petition is filed.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Civil Supplies.

The petitioner is a fair price shop dealer of Appalarajugudem village of T.Narsapuram Mandal of West Godavari district. It is stated that on the report of the Mandal Revenue Officer, T.Narsapuram, dated 05.06.2004, giving details of irregularities, said to have committed by the petitioner, which are grave in nature, the authorization of the petitioner was suspended pending enquiry by the 3rd respondent vide his proceedings dated 09.06.2005. As against the said order, the petitioner filed an appeal before the 2nd respondent, and the appellate authority, while considering all the contentions raised by the petitioner, dismissed the appeal by order dated 18.06.2005. Aggrieved by the same, the petitioner also filed revision before the 1st respondent and the revisional authority also dismissed the revision by the impugned order dated 14.10.2005 while confirming the order of the appellate authority. But, however, it was only a suspension made pending enquiry and disciplinary proceedings have not been completed.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the 3rd respondent is directed to issue a show cause notice to the petitioner for passing final orders and to take appropriate action in completing the enquiry, in accordance with law, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the petitioner, within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

With the above observations, the Writ Petition is disposed of. No order as to costs.
